(C. Brown/K. Fenner)

© 2003 SOCAN/ASCAP

D G A
I will resist war, I will not be seduced by hate

D G A
I'll live in service, the only enemy is my own heart

D G A
should I decide to late to challenge the very name

D G A
for what is war? Rich spending poor inside a game

D G A
it's not just the bullets, it's more than cannons in the field

D G A
it's the brutal fabric sewn by every crooked deal

D G A
and the loose threads of justice, pulled for this contest we are in

D G A
for what is life if it takes them to die for us to win-

D Bminor G A
are you listening? There is a prophet in our midst

D Bminor G A
he is a corpse- a dead hand curled into a fist

D Bminor G A
will you ignore the timeless story of the name

D Bminor G A
of what war is and how it all turns out the same

(instrumental bridge- F#minor/G , repeat)

(instrumental vs.- D,Bminor/G,A repeat)

BRIDGE -

F#minor/G F#minor/G F#minor/G F#minor/G
Oh truth what's to be done? They've made a liar of everyone

D G A
And every tyrant is built a dollar at a time

D G A
So here's your hitler standing on nickles and on dimes

D G A
Oh the crimes being done every day

D G A
And nothin's changing and it's perpetuating hate

D Bminor G A
One more lie, one more battle , one more grave

D Bminor G A
War without end- and if the willing and the brave

D Bminor G A
And the deaths of millions has promised us no relief

D Bminor G A
Then I take my life and place it on the side of peace

BRIDGE out - but this time reverse the chords - G/F#minor repeat end on Eminor
